

WEeping TOWER,
stainless steel fountain, up to 16' high

Perceptions created by light reflections are enhanced by the motion and sound of the water as it cascades down from the mountain top in a cylindrical/rejuvenating pattern.

Robert Lawrence Godwin

Brundidge, Alabama

Professional Vita

Professional sculptor
Moderator, "Sculpture and Fountain in the Landscape," Landscape Architects for the State of Louisiana, Baton Rouge, 1986
Moderator, "Art in Public Places," Architects, Legislators and State Arts Directors panel, Alabama Art League, Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts, 1974
Former educator, Alabama public school system

Selected Public Installations

WRIGHT BROTHERS, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, 2004
"1905 Wright Brothers Flier," Riverscape Project, Dayton, Ohio, 2001
MARLIN, Sanroc Cay Marina and Mall Development, Orange Beach, Alabama, 1999
WALL OF HISTORY, Retirement Systems of Alabama, City of Montgomery, 1998
THE SINGING HEART, Montgomery Cardiovascular Institute, Baptist Medical Center Complex, Alabama, 1996

Selected Collections

Walt Disney World, Orlando, Florida, multiple installations, 1988 and 1986
Alabama State University, Montgomery
Air University, Maxwell Air Force Base, Montgomery, Alabama
Pike Pioneer Museum, Troy, Alabama

Education

BA, Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, 1957

SCULPTURE PROPOSED FOR: